"The undersigned. a committee repr are reported to have said; but they were pleased to have had an opportunity to make a personal assurance to Mr. Cleveland.

From all that can be l-arned of the consultation has night, the greatest harmony exists between the National Committee and the representatives of the State Committee and Tammany Hall.

There is one speculation as to whether or preservation of the public health, necessary by sanitary experts for the preservation of the public health, Tammany Hail.

There is nome speculation as to whether or not Senator Hill will visit the Victoria c-day, but it is sense ally expressed that there is not the slightest friction between the veland and Hill as iar as the National issue is concerned.

Secretary o'Brien said that Mr. Cleveland will deave New York to hight on the Fall River boat. No formal engagements had been made for to-day, he said, and there were no appointments outside the hotel.
